La Dominatrice, 2001, 240 pages, Madame De Morville, 095254637X, 9780952546375, Stiletto Books, 2001

A collection of letters in print for the first time, written by the infamous Madame De Morville from the privacy of her chateau in the south-west f France to her numerous and seemingly spell bound admirers drawn from the male sex, and their replies to her demanding nature. Complex, darkly humoured, polished and supersensual, the contents of these hand-written accounts of servitude provide the reader with profound insights into the life and time of the medieval troubadour and his modern counterpart, the tongue-tied and kneelig fantastist. An invaluable resource.
